

This is a protest against Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to have their stations go political in the 2004 election. The FCC should be as concerned as we, the patriotic citizens of this country, are in the form of government which has served us and the rest of the world so well during its life. Let's get real and do what we can to keep our democracy strong.